

REFLECT RESPONSE

The World's First Gesture Control Sport Earphone

Wave your hand. Control your music.

Operated with a simple wave of the hand, the JBL Reflect Response earphones are the world's first wireless sport earphone with customizable motion sensor control. Now, you no longer have to stop a workout to change tracks or take a call with hard to use buttons. JBL Reflect Response earphones also feature up to 10 hours of legendary JBL sound with an ergonomic fit neckband and specially designed earpieces that stay in place regardless of how intense your workout routine is. The earphones, available in red, blue, green and black, are not only stylish but sweat proof as well.
